Attention to Comparative Legal Systems Students
Please follow the document to register 2020-2021 Spring Semester;

Dear Students;

I am the responsible lecturer and coordinator of the joint graduate program with the Alma Mater University of Bologna and Eastern Mediterranean University on Law. Some of you enrolled in comparative legal systems master program this semester. Welcome.

I would like to briefly inform on some subjects.

Each semester I'll fulfilled your course registration through Portal system, I'll do the programs, calendars etc. on the module lectures. Module courses are given by Bologna University School of Law's Professors at our University, Faculty. These courses are given as modules approximately 7 to 10 days. Exact dates and times will be announced you by emails. However the courses are given online due to pandemic situation. Please follow the official announcements about online or face to face lectures following weeks or months of the University's officials. (Institute of Graduate Studies Office https://grad.emu.edu.tr/en)

You need to conversation to the relevant lecturers about your courses in academic subjects such as Course materials, reading list or lesson hours etc. Other than that, I concentrate with the administrative part in particular. I'm sending you a list of the courses that opened this semester as an attachment. The two which are specified in yellow will be given as modules. Others will be given by our lecturers at the Faculty according to normal academic calendar. In addition classes commence will be on 3rd of March and the semester will be finish approximately 10th of June according to official academic calendar (https://www.emu.edu.tr/en/academics/calendar/academic-calendar-2020-2021/1528) .

You can contact the stated faculty lecturers after delivery your course registration program which will be shown in your student portal right after course registration.

Course registrations will be made today and tomorrow and late registration will be made till 10th of March. If you enrol as new student you can regıster until that time without late registration penalty. I add the list of the courses which are opening this semester. Please check the courses and email me about your choices. You should declare me what lessons you want to take officially. According to this statement, I will register your lectures via online. This type of request is valid only for this semester because of pandemic situation and online course registration period.

Lectures will be held through the online Microsoft Teams and Moodle programs as much as throughout online educational process. You will be automatically added to your courses lists on the programs. Newly enrolled students should contact Murat Coşkunsu, the computer operator of our Faculty, regarding your student portal account and password. His e-mail is here (murat.coskunsu@emu.edu.tr).

You can send an e-mail to the lecturers you want to contact. If you can't reach you can contact me by e-mail. In this mail, I add Prof. Mattioli, the program Director at the University of Bologna of joint Program and Asst. Prof Dr. Hakan Bilgeç, one of the Vice Dean of the Faculty, EMU.

Please contact me for your further questions. I hope you'll have a successful and healthysemester.
